

PARTNER QUALIFICATION FORM

Profile. Expertise. Goals.

Fill in what you know before speaking with the prospect.

1

PROFILE

Scale and structure

What is your primary business?

When was your company founded?

How many offices do you have worldwide?

What regions do your offices cover?

What is your annual revenue?

How many people does your company employ?

How many of them are involved in consulting, implementation and support?

Do you have software development expertise? In what environments and languages?

How many employees are in sales and marketing?

What experience do you have in [primary solution area]?

What [primary solution area] solutions does your company currently implement?

What are your current partnership statuses with other [primary solution area] vendors?

What [primary solution area] system do you use internally?

How many people are involved in [primary solution area] implementation?

How many existing clients do you have in [primary solution area]?

Who are some of your key clients in [primary solution area]?

How many people are involved in [primary solution area] sales and marketing?

What is your lead generation model for [primary solution area]?

Why are you interested in partnering with [vendor]?

What business model are you looking for in a partnership with us?

What are your revenue expectations?

Are you ready to allocate, train and enable a sales and marketing team to drive revenue?

Will you be able to invest in marketing campaigns?

Are you ready to allocate, train and certify an implementation team?

Will you use your existing implementation team, or hire/outsource additional resources?

[vendor] and [primary solution area] are placeholders, update before use.